

SBAC Testing: Are We Ready?

Steve Thornton, President
CA Educational Technology Professionals Association
And
Director of Technology
Menifee Union School District

Organization Type (select closest to your type):

Answered: 372 Skipped: 2

District Size:

Answered: 295 Skipped: 79

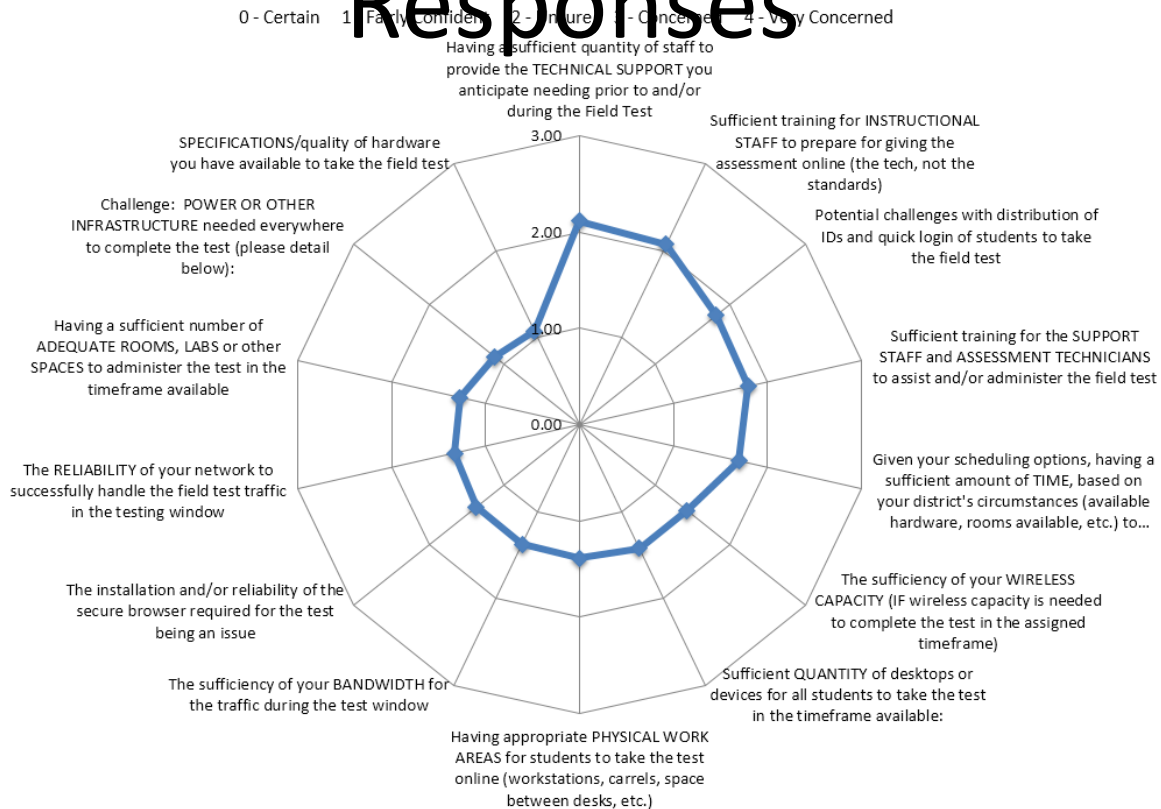

Question Topics

- Hardware and devices
- Network connectivity and Bandwidth
- Facilities, power and assessment environments
- Scheduling and logins procedures
- Technical and Instructional support
- Impact of preparations on IT Staff
- Implementation funding
- On-going funding and sustainability

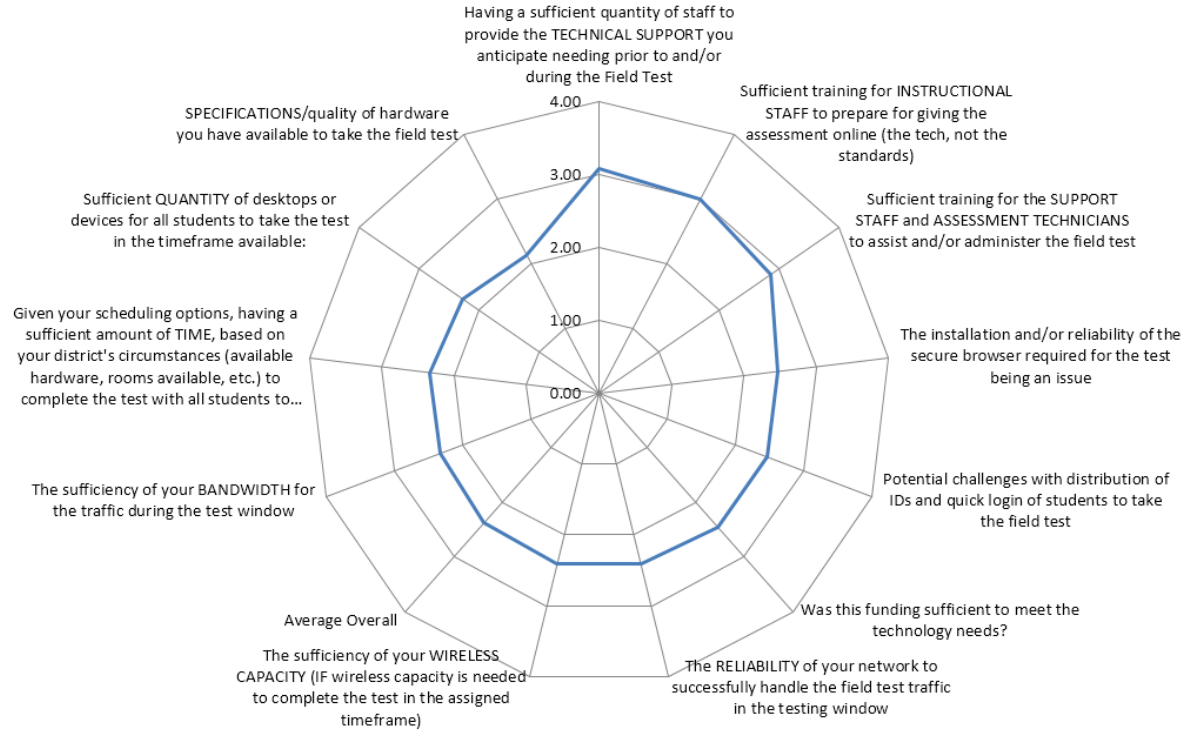

Certainty By Question – All Responses

CERTAINTY BY QUESTION – 50K ADA

0 - Certain 1 - Fairly Confident 2 - Unsure 3 - Concerned 4 - Very Concerned

Conclusions

- The majority of districts are fairly confident or certain that they have adequate bandwidth, infrastructure and devices to administer the Field Test.
- There is considerably less confidence regarding that there is -
 - Adequate technical staff to support the assessments
 - Adequate training for test administration
 - Ongoing funding to sustain and refresh both SBAC and CCSS environments
 - Adequate technical staff to sustain and support SBAC and CCSS environments